THE FIRST LESSON 출애굽기 EXODUS 33:12-23

12 Moses said to the Lord, "You have been telling me, 'Lead these people,' but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You have said, 'I know you by name and you have found favor with me.' 13 If you are pleased with me, teach me your ways so I may know you and continue to find favor with you. Remember that this nation is your people."

14 The Lord replied, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

15 Then Moses said to him, "If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here. 16 How will anyone know that you are pleased with me and with your people unless you go with us? What else will distinguish me and your people from all the other people on the face of the earth?"

17 And the Lord said to Moses, "I will do the very thing you have asked, because I am pleased with you and I know you by name."

18 Then Moses said, "Now show me your glory."

19 And the Lord said, "I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the Lord, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. 20 But," he said, "you cannot see my face, for no one may see me and live."

21 Then the Lord said, "There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock. 22 When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by. 23 Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen."

시편 PSALM 99

- 1 The Lord reigns, let the nations tremble; he sits enthroned between the cherubim, let the earth shake.
- 2 Great is the Lord in Zion; he is exalted over all the nations.
- 3 Let them praise your great and awesome name— he is holy.
- 4 The King is mighty, he loves justice— you have established equity; in Jacob you have done what is just and right.
- 5 Exalt the Lord our God and worship at his footstool; he is holy.
- 6 Moses and Aaron were among his priests, Samuel was among those who called on his name; they called on the Lord and he answered them.
- 7 He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud; they kept his statutes and the decrees he gave them.
- 8 Lord our God, you answered them; you were to Israel a forgiving God, though you punished their misdeeds.
- 9 Exalt the Lord our God and worship at his holy mountain, for the Lord our God is holy.

THE SECOND LESSON 데살로니가전서 1 THESSALONIANS 1:1-10

1 Paul, Silas and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace and peace to you.

2 We always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers. 3 We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

4 For we know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that he has chosen you, 5 because our gospel came to you not simply with words but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and deep conviction. You know how we lived among you for your sake. 6 You became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you welcomed the message in the midst of severe suffering with the joy given by the Holy Spirit. 7 And so you became a model to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. 8 The Lord's message rang out from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia—your faith in God has become known everywhere. Therefore we do not need to say anything about it, 9 for they themselves report what kind of reception you gave us. They tell how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, 10 and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.

1. Text Overview

First Thessalonians is thought to be one of the earliest letters Paul wrote. On his second missionary journey he planted the church in Thessalonica, but fierce opposition forced him to leave the city after only a short stay (Acts 17:1-10).

Worried about the young church, Paul sent Timothy to check on them. Timothy came back with good news: in the middle of hardship, the believers were standing firm in faith and love (3:6).

Chapter 1 opens with thanksgiving. Paul remembers their faith, love, and hope (v. 3), recalls how the gospel came to them (v. 5), and describes how their lives were changed (vv. 9-10).

2. Key Themes

Faith, love, and hope — Paul remembers “your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope” (v. 3). Faith puts us to work, love makes us willing to toil, and hope keeps us going to the end. Faith does not stay in our heads; it shows up in how we live.

A gospel that came with power — The gospel came “not simply with words but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and deep conviction” (v. 5). The believers welcomed the message “in the midst of severe suffering with the joy given by the Holy Spirit” (v. 6). Suffering and joy stand side by side in the same sentence.

A church that became a model — They imitated Paul and the Lord, and in turn became a model to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia (vv. 6-7). Turning from idols to serve the living and true God (v. 9) and waiting for His Son from heaven (v. 10) became a witness to the gospel all by itself.

3. Reflection

Whenever Paul thought of the Thessalonians, he thanked God (v. 2). When we think of our church, what comes to mind first? This week, pray by name for one member of our church with thanksgiving, and then tell that person you are thankful for them.

We have idols too. They may not be carved from wood or stone, but money, health, our children, or our reputation can take the place that belongs to God. Notice where your heart, your time, and your worries go most often, and give that place back to God.

The church in Thessalonica was neither large nor old, yet word of its faith spread everywhere (v. 8). A small church and older believers can be a model too. May our neighbors look at us and say, “Those people truly serve God.”

4. Discussion Questions

- Of “work produced by faith, labor prompted by love, and endurance inspired by hope,” which one do you most need strength for these days?
- What is one small thing our church could do together this month to be a model to our neighbors?

5. Meditation & Prayer

Living and true God, thank You for loving us and choosing us. Let our faith be at work, our love be willing to labor, and our hope endure to the end. Help us turn from every idol left in our hearts to serve You alone, and as we wait for Your Son from heaven, make our church a model to our neighbors. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE GOSPEL 마태복음 MATTHEW 22:15-22

15 Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap him in his words. 16 They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians. “Teacher,” they said, “we know that you are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You aren’t swayed by others, because you pay no attention to who they are. 17 Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it right to pay the imperial tax to Caesar or not?”

18 But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, “You hypocrites, why are you trying to trap me? 19 Show me the coin used for paying the tax.” They brought him a denarius, 20 and he asked them, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?”

21 “Caesar’s,” they replied. Then he said to them, “So give back to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.”

22 When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away.
