THE FIRST LESSON 신명기 DEUTERONOMY 34:1-12

1 Then Moses climbed Mount Nebo from the plains of Moab to the top of Pisgah, across from Jericho. There the Lord showed him the whole land—from Gilead to Dan, 2 all of Naphtali, the territory of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Mediterranean Sea, 3 the Negev and the whole region from the Valley of Jericho, the City of Palms, as far as Zoar. 4 Then the Lord said to him, “This is the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob when I said, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have let you see it with your eyes, but you will not cross over into it.”

5 And Moses the servant of the Lord died there in Moab, as the Lord had said. 6 He buried him in Moab, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, but to this day no one knows where his grave is. 7 Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died, yet his eyes were not weak nor his strength gone. 8 The Israelites grieved for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days, until the time of weeping and mourning was over.

9 Now Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him. So the Israelites listened to him and did what the Lord had commanded Moses.

10 Since then, no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face, 11 who did all those signs and wonders the Lord sent him to do in Egypt—to Pharaoh and to all his officials and to his whole land. 12 For no one has ever shown the mighty power or performed the awesome deeds that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

시편 PSALM 90:1-6, 13-17

1 Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.

2 Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

3 You turn people back to dust, saying, "Return to dust, you mortals."

4 A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night.

5 Yet you sweep people away in the sleep of death— they are like the new grass of the morning:

6 In the morning it springs up new, but by evening it is dry and withered.

13 Relent, Lord! How long will it be? Have compassion on your servants.

14 Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen trouble.

16 May your deeds be shown to your servants, your splendor to their children.

17 May the favor of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us— yes, establish the work of our hands.

THE SECOND LESSON 데살로니가전서 1 THESSALONIANS 2:1-8

2 You know, brothers and sisters, that our visit to you was not without results. 2 We had previously suffered and been treated outrageously in Philippi, as you know, but with the help of our God we dared to tell you his gospel in the face of strong opposition. 3 For the appeal we make does not spring from error or impure motives, nor are we trying to trick you. 4 On the contrary, we speak as those approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please people but God, who tests our hearts. 5 You know we never used flattery, nor did we put on a mask to cover up greed—God is our witness. 6 We were not looking for praise from people, not from you or anyone else, even though as apostles of Christ we could have asserted our authority. 7 Instead, we were like young children among you. Just as a nursing mother cares for her children, 8 so we cared for you. Because we loved you so much, we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God but our lives as well.

1. Text Overview

After Paul and his companions preached the gospel in Thessalonica, strong opposition forced them to leave the city in a hurry. Afterward, rumors reached the church questioning Paul's motives.

In chapter 2, Paul looks back on the heart with which he shared the gospel. Though he had suffered and been mistreated in Philippi, with God's help he still dared to preach in the face of strong opposition (v. 2).

The passage moves from motives (vv. 3–4) → attitude (vv. 5–6) → love (vv. 7–8). The gospel is shared not only through words, but through the life of the one who shares it.

2. Key Themes

Pleasing God, not people — Paul says, “We are not trying to please people but God, who tests our hearts” (v. 4). Because the gospel has been entrusted to us, God's approval matters more than human praise. God looks not at appearances but at the motives of our hearts.

Honest service — Paul never used flattery or put on a mask to cover up greed, and he adds, “God is our witness” (v. 5). As an apostle he could have asserted his authority, yet he did not seek praise from people (v. 6). True service hides no secret agenda.

A mother's love — Paul cared for the believers “just as a nursing mother cares for her children” (v. 7). He was delighted to share not only the gospel of God but his very life as well (v. 8). The gospel is shared best through love that shares life.

3. Reflection

Even at church, it is easy to be conscious of how others see us. When no one notices our service, we may feel hurt. This week, offer one act of service to God alone, without anyone knowing. God, who tests our hearts, will remember it (v. 4).

Paul did not stop after the hardships in Philippi (v. 2). In our immigrant lives, we too face misunderstanding and hurt. But with the help of our God, we can rise again. If an old wound has closed your heart, place it in the Lord's hands today.

Like a mother caring for her child, love is shown through time and a gentle hand. There are lonely elders and newcomer families in our church. This week, call one person or share a meal together, and share your life. That is how we live out the Word.

4. Discussion Questions

- Whom am I trying to please in my life of faith? What would service aimed at God, rather than human approval, look like for me?
- Like Paul, with whom could I share not only the gospel but "my life as well"?

5. Meditation & Prayer

God who tests our hearts, help us seek Your pleasure rather than human praise. Give us courage through Your help in times of hardship, and let us serve with honest and sincere hearts. Make us a community that cares for one another as a mother cares for her children, sharing not only the gospel but our very lives. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE GOSPEL 마태복음 MATTHEW 22:34-46

34 Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. 35 One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: 36 “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?”

37 Jesus replied: “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ 38 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 “What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?” “The son of David,” they replied.

43 He said to them, “How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls him ‘Lord’? For he says,

44 “‘The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet.”’

45 If then David calls him ‘Lord,’ how can he be his son?” 46 No one could say a word in reply, and from that day on no one dared to ask him any more questions.
