THE FIRST LESSON 여호수아 JOSHUA 24:1-3, 14-25

1 Then Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel at Shechem. He summoned the elders, leaders, judges and officials of Israel, and they presented themselves before God.

2 Joshua said to all the people, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'Long ago your ancestors, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the Euphrates River and worshiped other gods. 3 But I took your father Abraham from the land beyond the Euphrates and led him throughout Canaan and gave him many descendants. I gave him Isaac, 14 "Now fear the Lord and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your ancestors worshiped beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt, and serve the Lord. 15 But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

16 Then the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the Lord to serve other gods! 17 It was the Lord our God himself who brought us and our parents up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we traveled. 18 And the Lord drove out before us all the nations, including the Amorites, who lived in the land. We too will serve the Lord, because he is our God."

19 Joshua said to the people, "You are not able to serve the Lord. He is a holy God; he is a jealous God.
He will not forgive your rebellion and your sins. 20 If you forsake the Lord and serve foreign gods, he will turn and bring disaster on you and make an end of you, after he has been good to you."

21 But the people said to Joshua, "No! We will serve the Lord."

22 Then Joshua said, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve the Lord."
"Yes, we are witnesses," they replied.

23 "Now then," said Joshua, "throw away the foreign gods that are among you and yield your hearts to the Lord, the God of Israel."

24 And the people said to Joshua, "We will serve the Lord our God and obey him."

25 On that day Joshua made a covenant for the people, and there at Shechem he reaffirmed for them decrees and laws.

시편 PSALM 78:1-7

1 My people, hear my teaching; listen to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth with a parable; I will utter hidden things, things from of old—

3 things we have heard and known, things our ancestors have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their descendants; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord, his power, and the wonders he has done.

5 He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our ancestors to teach their children,

6 so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born, and they in turn would tell their children.

7 Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget his deeds but would keep his commands.

THE SECOND LESSON 데살로니가 전서 1 THESSALONIANS 4:13-18

13 Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. 14 For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. 15 According to the Lord's word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. 17 After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. 18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.

1. Text Overview

The Thessalonians had received the gospel with joy, but their hearts were heavy for believers who had already died. They wondered what would happen to them when the Lord returned.

Paul answers their grief and their questions. Because Jesus died and rose again, those who have fallen asleep in Him have not been forgotten.

The passage moves from grief → faith in the resurrection → the Lord's coming → encouraging one another. At the center is the promise: "we will be with the Lord forever" (v. 17).

2. Key Themes

Grief with hope — Paul does not tell us not to grieve. He says we need not "grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope" (v. 13). Believers still shed tears when we say goodbye, but our tears are mixed with hope.

Hope built on the resurrection — "We believe that Jesus died and rose again" (v. 14). Our hope is not a vague wish; it stands on what has already happened. God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in Him.

Always with the Lord — "The Lord himself will come down from heaven" (v. 16), and those who have died and those still alive will meet Him together (v. 17). Death cannot separate God's people from the Lord or from one another forever.

3. Reflection

Many among us have said goodbye to parents, spouses and friends. Some carry the pain of not being at a loved one's side in Korea at the end. This week, remember those names and tell the Lord honestly about your grief.

As we grow older, death can feel closer. Yet Paul speaks of those who have died in Christ as having "fallen asleep" (v. 14), and those who sleep will wake. When fear comes this week, read verse 17 aloud.

Paul closes, "encourage one another with these words" (v. 18). Comfort is not only the pastor's work. This week, call or visit someone who has lost a family member or who lives alone. Sit with that person and share this passage.

4. Discussion Questions

- When you lost someone you loved, what words or which person comforted you most?
- How could the promise "we will be with the Lord forever" (v. 17) change your fears and priorities today?

5. Meditation & Prayer

God who raised Jesus from the dead, help us hold on to hope even in our grief. We entrust to You those who have fallen asleep in Him, and we wait for the day when we will be with the Lord forever. Make us people who encourage the lonely and the grieving with these words. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE GOSPEL 마태복음 MATTHEW 25:1-13

1 “At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 Five of them were foolish and five were wise. 3 The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. 4 The wise ones, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. 5 The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

6 “At midnight the cry rang out: ‘Here’s the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’

7 “Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. 8 The foolish ones said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.’

9 “‘No,’ they replied, ‘there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

10 “But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut.

11 “Later the others also came. ‘Lord, Lord,’ they said, ‘open the door for us!’

12 “But he replied, ‘Truly I tell you, I don’t know you.’

13 “Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.
