THE FIRST LESSON 신명기 DEUTERONOMY 8:7-18

7 For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good land—a land with brooks, streams, and deep springs gushing out into the valleys and hills; 8 a land with wheat and barley, vines and fig trees, pomegranates, olive oil and honey; 9 a land where bread will not be scarce and you will lack nothing; a land where the rocks are iron and you can dig copper out of the hills.

10 When you have eaten and are satisfied, praise the Lord your God for the good land he has given you.
11 Be careful that you do not forget the Lord your God, failing to observe his commands, his laws and his decrees that I am giving you this day. 12 Otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses and settle down, 13 and when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase and all you have is multiplied, 14 then your heart will become proud and you will forget the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. 15 He led you through the vast and dreadful wilderness, that thirsty and waterless land, with its venomous snakes and scorpions. He brought you water out of hard rock. 16 He gave you manna to eat in the wilderness, something your ancestors had never known, to humble and test you so that in the end it might go well with you. 17 You may say to yourself, “My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me.” 18 But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your ancestors, as it is today.

시편 PSALM 65

1 Praise awaits you, our God, in Zion; to you our vows will be fulfilled.

2 You who answer prayer, to you all people will come.

3 When we were overwhelmed by sins, you forgave our transgressions.

4 Blessed are those you choose and bring near to live in your courts! We are filled with the good things of your house, of your holy temple.

5 You answer us with awesome and righteous deeds, God our Savior, the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas,

6 who formed the mountains by your power, having armed yourself with strength,

7 who stilled the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations.

8 The whole earth is filled with awe at your wonders; where morning dawns, where evening fades, you call forth songs of joy.

9 You care for the land and water it; you enrich it abundantly. The streams of God are filled with water to provide the people with grain, for so you have ordained it.

10 You drench its furrows and level its ridges; you soften it with showers and bless its crops.

11 You crown the year with your bounty, and your carts overflow with abundance.

12 The grasslands of the wilderness overflow; the hills are clothed with gladness.

13 The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with grain; they shout for joy and sing.

THE SECOND LESSON 고린도후서 2 CORINTHIANS 9:6-15

6 Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. 7 Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. 8 And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. 9 As it is written: "They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor; their righteousness endures forever."

10 Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness. 11 You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

12 This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of the Lord's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God. 13 Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, others will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else. 14 And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. 15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

1. Text Overview

Paul writes to the church in Corinth as they prepare an offering for the poor believers in Jerusalem. He begins with a picture from farming: "Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously" (v. 6). Giving is not losing; it is planting.

Paul stresses the heart of the giver. "Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (v. 7). God looks at the joy behind the gift more than the amount, and he "is able to bless you abundantly" (v. 8).

This offering meets the needs of God's people, and it also overflows "in many expressions of thanks to God" (v. 12). Those who receive praise God and pray for the givers (vv. 13–14). Paul ends by naming the source of all thanks: "Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!" (v. 15).

2. Key Themes

Sowing and Reaping — In God's kingdom, sharing is not a loss but a seed. It is God who "supplies seed to the sower and bread for food" (v. 10).

A Cheerful Heart — God loves giving that comes freely from the heart, not reluctantly or under pressure (v. 7).

Generosity Becomes Thanksgiving — Our giving meets others' needs and, in the end, overflows into thanks and praise to God (v. 12).

3. Reflection

At Thanksgiving we look back on the year. Immigrant life has its hardships, but our health, our families, and our church are all gifts from God. How often did we stop to remember the grace we have received?

As we grow older, it is easy to think, "I have nothing left to give." Yet God promises that "in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work" (v. 8). A warm phone call, a dish made with care, a prayer for a neighbor: each is a precious seed before God.

This week, let us show our thanks with a small act of sharing, not only with words. Choose one lonely church member or neighbor and reach out to them. That small gift may lead them to give thanks to God.

4. Discussion Questions

- What is one thing you are most thankful to God for this year? What did it show you about God?
- What small seed can you sow this week, giving cheerfully rather than reluctantly?

5. Meditation & Prayer

Gracious God, thank you for giving us seed and bread this year and for meeting all our needs. Keep us from taking your blessings for granted, and make us people who share with joy, not reluctantly or under compulsion. May our small gifts meet the needs of others and overflow in thanksgiving to you. Above all, we thank you for your indescribable gift, Jesus Christ. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE GOSPEL 누가복음 LUKE 17:11-19

11 Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. 12 As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance 13 and called out in a loud voice, “Jesus, Master, have pity on us!”

14 When he saw them, he said, “Go, show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were cleansed.

15 One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. 16 He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan.

17 Jesus asked, “Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? 18 Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?” 19 Then he said to him, “Rise and go; your faith has made you well.”
